Patrick Henry Boys Plantation To Expand

The board of directors and the trustees of the Patrick Henry Boys Plantation held its annual meeting on Sunday, July 2nd, with a long agenda of important matters to be discussed.

J. Kenneth Andrews, president, presented an encouraging report on the past year's activites and was quite enthused about the program for the coming year.

Eleven persons were elected to the Executive Board.

Announcement and discussion regarding the forthcoming building program was made. Hon. William M. Tuck will be actively engaged as honorary chairman. Andrews, president, will serve as chairman. The plan calls for a cottage for 12 additional boys and house-parents, staff house and additional office space, waste disposal, walks and water connections, at a total estimated cost of $105,000. It is thought that the staff house and office space are of paramount need, and this phase of the building program may be completed soon, this cost is estimated to be $20,000. It was reported that pledges and gifts received on hand now total $71,000.

The long range building program includes an administration building and three additional cottages for boys and house-parents. The plan is not to overbuild, with the possibility of losing the definite home atmosphere and family relation now so evident in the home.

Some of the recent outstanding accomplishments mentioned included the planting of over 235,000 Loblolly pines and an additional 90,000 are on the program. A shop building was completed; major grading and landscaping has been done on the grounds; they have now an outdoor play court for basketball and tennis and a scholarship committee has been established with a scholarship fund set up to benefit theboys. A storage shed has been built where the yearly supply of potatoes and foods raised on the plantation are kept. A recent big need was supplied when the 35,000 gallon storage tank and distribution lines, which included fire plugs, were completed. This system is designed to meet all future water needs.

It is easy to see just why Patrick Henry Boys Plantation can look forward to another successful year.

Guys & Dolls To Be Presented July 14 - 15

A strong cast of popular veterans and promising newcomers are featured in the Southside Community Theatre's 5th summer musical, "Guys and Dolls", to be presented Friday and Saturday, July 14 and 15, at 8:00 p.m. at Jarman Auditorium in Farmville.

Jim McGall plays the part of a gambler, Ronda Simms is seen as a Salvation Army girl, Carol Gilchrist appears as a brassy dance hall stripper, and Fred Herndon is cast as an unwilling lover in this renowned broadway musical writtedby the late Damon Runyan.

Other major roles have been assigned to Tully Tursey, who wa s last seen as Harold Hill in "The Music Man", and Jim Helms, who starred in "South Pacific", as well as to V. V. "Butch" Gordon, Al Arrington and Ann Jarrett.

Co-sponsors of the production are the Farmville Jaycees who have assisted the theatre group stage "Li'l Abner", "Oklahoma!", "South Pacific" and "The Music Man" in previous years. The show is directed by Patton M. Lockwood, director of Speech and Dramatic Art at Longwood College.

New Law Effective July 1st

Richmond - July 1 will see a drastic lowering of the blood alcohol level of motorists necessary to raise the presumption of guilt in cases of operating when intoxicated, Colonel H. W. Burgess, Superintendent of State Police observed today.

Under a lwas enacted by the 1972 General Assembly, this level will be cut from the present .15 percent of blood alcohol by weight to .1. Colonel Burgess explained that while variables enter the picture, a 160 pound person has the equivalent of about 6-1/2 ounces of 100 proof whiskey in his system when the .15 level is reached. The comparable amount for the .1 level is four ounces.

"This does not mean that the individual has consumed these amounts," he said, "it means they are in his system at the time of testing for the level drops at a rate of about .015 percent an hour."

He continued in saying that the .12 level has long been considered by medical authorities as unrealistically high and that 37 states now set it at .1 while both Utah and Idaho, as well as the Canadian provinces, use .08.

As of July 1, the law will direct that a presumption of innocence is raised if the level is .05 or less and one of guilt if it is .10 or above. In between, no presumption is raised and the test result is to be considered along with other evidence. The "impaired driving" offense, providing a lesser penalty at a .1 level, will be done away with.

Richmond spent the week end with Mrs. Lucy Glover. They visited in the C. W. Morris home Saturday night.

Ex-Paratrooper Now Pollution Control Officer

RICHMOND - A man who has looked air pollution in the eye from high in the clouds all the way down to the ground is the State Air Pollution Control Board's new control officer for Another law mentioned by Colonel Burgess is one reducing the mandatory license suspension upon a conviction of driving when intoxicated from one year to six month, with court having the power ot increase the suspension time up to a year. He said this was brought about be reluctance of juries to convict when the accused person depended upon his license for his livelihood. The three year suspension upon a second conviction will remain mandatory when this law becomes effective, alson on July 1, he said.

Use of the breath test for the final determination will not be authorized until January 1, 1973.

the Lynchburg area.

Russell Alfred Krantz, Jr., a resident of Lynchburg, has taken over the field enforcement job for a four-county area as successor to William J. Vinson Jr., who resigned April 15 to join Fidelity National Bank there.

Krantz, 24, is an ex-paratrooper.

He graduated from Lynchburg College with a B. S. degree in physics in 1970 and then joined the Army. Until his discharge early this year he served with the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, N. C., where he was a fire direction control computer with the division's 319th Artillery.

He does pollution control work now in Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford and Campbell Counties and the cities of Bedford and Lynchburg -- the same
